WHERE STUDENTS SUCCEED

Spanish

A Level Spanish:

Why choose this subject?

If you have achieved a Grade 7 or above in Spanish at GCSE and have an appreciation of the language, literature, film and culture of the Spanish-speaking world then Spanish A-Level is for you. A-Level Spanish will enable you to develop an advanced level knowledge and understanding of the Spanish language, the culture of Spain and other Spanish-speaking countries, as well as practical and valuable language and transferable study skills. It will also prepare you for higher education and enhance your employability profile.

What Will I Be Studying?

The qualification has a straightforward structure with four engaging themes:

1. La evolución de la sociedad española
2. La cultura política y artística en el mundo hispanohablante
3. La inmigración y la sociedad multicultural española
4. La dictadura franquista y la transición a la democracia

The four Themes are studied alongside two works (one literary text and one film) assessed through two externally-examined papers and one Non-exam assessment (speaking).

Entry Criteria

Five GCSEs at grade 5-9, plus a minimum of a 7 grade in Spanish GCSE.

How will I be assessed?

Paper 1: Listening, reading and translation (*Paper code: 9SP0/01)

Written examination: 2 hours 40% of the qualification 80 marks

Content overview

This paper draws on vocabulary and structures across all four themes.

Assessment overview

Students are not permitted access to a dictionary during the examination.

The examination is made up of:

Section A: Listening (30 marks)

A listening assessment based on a recording, featuring male and female Spanish speakers. Students will respond to comprehension questions based on a variety of contexts and sources.

Section B: Reading (30 marks)

A reading assessment based on a variety of text types and genres where students will have to respond to comprehension questions.

Section C: Translation into English (20 marks)

An unseen passage to be translated from Spanish to English.

Paper 2: Written response to works and translation (*Paper code: 9SP0/02)

Written examination: 2 hours and 40 minutes 30% of the qualification 120 marks

Content overview

This paper draws on the study of two discrete Spanish works: one literary text and one film

Assessment overview

This paper includes a translation exercise and two essays on one literary text and one film (students must not answer questions on two films).

Students are not permitted access to a dictionary or any documentation relating to the works during the examination.

Section A: Translation (20 marks)

Students translate an unseen passage from English into Spanish.

Section B: Written response to works (literary texts) (50 marks)

Students must write an extended response on either one of the literary texts listed in Students select one question from a choice of two for each of their chosen literary text(s).

Section C: Written response to works (films) (50 marks)

Students who answer only one question from a literary text in Section B must now write an extended response on one of the films listed in Appendix 2: Prescribed literary texts and films. Students select one question from a choice of two for their chosen film.

Paper 3: Speaking (*Paper code: 9SP0/03)

Internally conducted and externally assessed

Total assessment time: between 21 and 23 minutes, which includes a single period of 5 minutes' formal preparation time 30% of the qualification 72 marks

Content overview

Task 1 draws on vocabulary and structures across all four themes.

Task 2 is based on independent research selected and carried out by the student. The research may be based on one of the themes or on the student's own subject of interest related to the society and culture of the language studied. Students will be assessed on their ability to use a range of language accurately, communicate and interact effectively, summarise and analyse findings from written sources relating to their research subject, and show knowledge and understanding about the culture and society where the language is spoken.

Assessment overview

Students complete two tasks. Task 1 is worth 30 marks and Task 2 is worth 42 marks.

Task 1 (discussion on a Theme)

Students discuss one Theme from the specification based on a stimulus containing two different statements.

Task 2, Part 1 (independent research presentation)

Students present a summary of at least two of the written sources they have used for their research and give a personal response to what they have read.

Task 2, Part 2 (discussion on independent research)

Students answer questions on their presentation and then have a wider discussion on their research.
